

Bulgarian ICT Cluster is among first cluster organizations in Bulgaria founded in 2004.

The cluster is highly competitive and user –innovative driven organization, approved by the European Commission as a knowledge-driven cluster.

The general goal of the organization is to promote wider penetration of ICT tools and systems application as the main driver for development of innovations and competitive economy .

Objectives:

- to promote cluster idea in Bulgaria as a driver for development of innovations and increasing competitiveness of SME.
- to transfer know - how and implement best European practices in the filed of ICT and cluster development through participation in European projects and networks.
- to improve competitiveness of Bulgarian ICT companies.
- to ensure adequate training and development of human resources for the ICT business
- to promote a positive public attitude to the wider application of information and communication technologies;